

CLIENTS' SECURITY BOARD
OF THE
SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT OF MASSACHUSETTS

ANNUAL REPORT
TO THE
SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT
FISCAL YEAR 2018

September 1, 2017 - August 31, 2018

CLIENTS' SECURITY BOARD
of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts

August 31, 2018

Dear Reader,

After dipping below the $1 million mark in annual awards for two consecutive years, the Board awarded $1.29 million to 91 claimants in fiscal year 2018. That marked the 24th year (out of 44 years in existence) when total awards exceeded $1 million.

Disbarred lawyer David Zak, accounted for 52 of the 91 awards, for a total of $261,524.00 paid to his former clients. Using radio and newspaper advertisements, he methodically exploited Spanish and Portuguese-speaking homeowners with false claims about his prowess in obtaining mortgage modifications for those affected by the 2008 real estate crisis. He then proceeded to charge thousands of dollars in advance fees for his services. Not only did he fail to provide legitimate legal services — barely 5% of his clients' mortgages were permanently modified — but his charging of advance fees itself was unlawful under state and federal regulations, Attorney General Healey vigorously pursued a Chapter 93A action against him but Mr. Zak's bankruptcy thwarted attempts to execute on that judgment. The result was a settlement covering less than 10% of Mr. Zak's defalcation. On bar counsel's suggestion, the Board contacted AAG Sara Cable who graciously shared the litigation documentation on Mr. Zak's former clients that were the basis of the Chapter 93A action. Using these materials, the Clients' Security Board made 52 awards to Mr. Zak's former clients. As a result of those awards and outreach by the Board, additional, heretofore unknown, former clients of Mr. Zak filed claims and received CSB awards. This is a sterling example of cooperation with other agencies that helped to restore trust in our profession and to provide full restitution to victims of lawyer fraud.

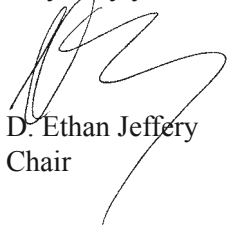

This is my fourth and final letter as Chair. In those four years, our Board awarded a total of $5.6 million that included $2.9 million in 2015 (highest in Board history) and $500,701 last year (lowest in 30 years). Even with those steep fluctuations, the last eleven years show a median annual award of $2,059,195. This microcosm of Board history underscores both the inherently unpredictable nature of our work in any one year, and its consistency over many years.

Serving on the Board has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my professional career, as such service brings with it rich human interaction and the ability to help right the wrongs done to the public. This limited space prevents me from naming individuals, but I have never worked with a more dedicated, insightful group than my colleagues on the Board who always strove to make the right decisions. It was the claimants who appeared before us, however, who left a permanent marker in my memory. Their shock at betrayal and their abiding gratitude to the lawyers of Massachusetts for restoring the stolen dollars made it supremely worthwhile.

The existence of and the work done by the Board would not be possible without the commitment to justice of the Supreme Judicial Court. The Court's foresight in establishing a client protection protocol that has neither a statute of limitations nor a cap on awards has made the Board the gold standard of client protection agencies nationwide. On behalf of the Board, I reaffirm the Board's gratitude for the decades of unwavering support from the Supreme Judicial Court.

Finally, I must recognize Karen O'Toole, Adam Lutynski and Bernice Addonizio, without whose intelligence, hard work and, perhaps most importantly, compassion for those wronged, the Board could not function. It has been my honor to work with them over the years.

Very truly yours,

D. Ethan Jeffery
Chair
