CLIENTS' SECURITY BOARD of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts

August 31, 2016

Dear Reader,

Just last year in this space I remarked how fiscal year 2015 “continued the parade of the unpredictables in CSB history.” Little did I know what dramatic differences fiscal year 2016 would deliver. Here are a few examples.

- Last year the Clients' Security Board (the “Board”) awarded $2.9 million (the highest amount ever) to 61 claimants. This year we awarded $0.85 million (the lowest amount in 23 years) to 28 claimants.
- This year's dismissal rate (dismissals divided by adjudications) of 44% was the sixth largest rate in the last 36 years. Two dismissals alone claimed losses totaling $1.2 million. Both presented daunting fact patterns and involved lengthy hearings.

The lesson that emerges from all of this is that a single year does not create a trend. One can begin to understand the Board's rhythm only by examining its statistics over many years.

Despite the year-to-year fluctuations described above, 2016 also provided some perennially predictable results. Trusts & Estates continued its reign (10 of the last 13 years) as the leading category in total dollars awarded this year. The top five lawyers appearing before the Board misappropriated $655,593, or 77% of the total of $846,842 awarded. The 23 lawyers who appeared before the Board in fiscal year 2016 represented an infinitesimally tiny percentage (0.0004%) of the 59,503 registered lawyers in the Commonwealth.

This year marked the first time in the Board's history that the Office of the State Auditor (the “OSA”) audited Board operations. This was not a financial audit (the Board does not receive or use any taxpayer funds), but rather a performance audit. Representatives of the OSA spent portions of FY2015 and FY2016 in the Board's offices interviewing Board staff and reviewing hundreds of pages of the 220 confidential claims filed between September 1, 2012 and February 28, 2015. The OSA released its official audit report in February, 2016 that can be found at:

<http://www.mass.gov/auditor/docs/audits/2016/201511003j.pdf>

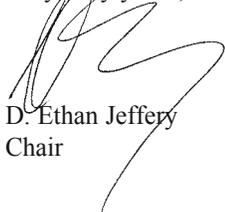

In audit parlance, the result was a “clean” audit, about which the Board and staff are most pleased. The clean audit could not have been achieved without the hard work of the Board staff, and the results are a testament to their professionalism and the quality of their work, both during the audit process and for the years prior to the audit.

Assistant Board Counsel Karen O'Toole's national standing in the Client Protection community was also affirmed when she was chosen to be a member of a select ABA consultation team that visited a large northeastern state to meet with members of its client protection program and the Justices of that state's Supreme Court to review their activities and challenges.

In closing, we take note that during February, 2015, three justices of the SJC announced their retirement from the Court. They are Robert J. Cordy, Francis X. Spina and Fernande R. V. Duffly, who jointly represent thirty-seven years of experience on the Court. Because of his assignment as the Court's liaison to the Board, Justice Spina was closest to the workings of the Board. All three Justices are remarkable individuals, each of whom has made noteworthy contributions to justice in Massachusetts. We offer them our profound gratitude and best wishes.

This year Massachusetts remains, again, both unique in, and in the vanguard of, the client protection movement in the United States. For this I wish to gratefully acknowledge the unwavering support of the Supreme Judicial Court and the thoughtful, selfless and dedicated service of my Board colleagues and Board counsel.

Very truly yours,

D. Ethan Jeffery
Chair
