OF THE
SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT OF MASSACHUSETTS

ANNUAL REPORT
TO THE
SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT
FISCAL YEAR 2020

July 1, 2019 - June 30, 2020

DEDICATION

To the lasting memory of the late Chief Justice Ralph D. Gants (1954 – 2020), who inspired us with his dedication to helping the public, the judiciary, and the legal profession.

CLIENTS' SECURITY BOARD of the Supreme Judicial Court
of Massachusetts
June 30, 2020

Dear Reader,

Fiscal year 2020 was marked by notable transitions at the Clients' Security Board. In addition to the major personnel changes to the Board and staff, as described below, the COVID-19 pandemic has left its indelible mark on all of us. As of this writing, however, I am grateful that our entire Board and staff are in good health and continue to perform our duties with dedication and enthusiasm. When the governor announced a state of emergency for the Commonwealth in March 2020, the staff quickly and seamlessly transitioned to working remotely using electronic files. They continued to process claims and respond to inquiries from the public without a missed step. Although we were forced to cancel our March in-person meeting, the Board of Bar Overseers' skilled and supportive IT staff got us up, running, and equipped to meet remotely. The Board conducted videoconference meetings during April, May, and June 2020 that included four claimant hearings. As a result, we continued to make awards to claimants who were exceedingly grateful to receive compensation for their losses during this difficult time.

At its ten meetings this year, the Board made 35 awards totaling approximately $1.95 million, quite close to our current average of $2 million annually. The category of Trusts and Estates once again led with awards of $655,736.00 or 33.63% of the total. Tied for second were the categories of Unearned Retainers ($347,268.00 or 17.81%) and Fiduciary ($344,075.00 or 17.65%). Fortunately, the 21 disciplined lawyers responsible for the $1.95 million in awards represented only 0.04% of the Commonwealth's lawyers. Four of the 21 lawyers (19%) (John N. Lewis, Bruce E. Lavigne, John F. Paczkowski, and Jeffrey R. Mazer) accounted for $1.18 million or 61% of the reimbursements.

We suspect, but have no hard evidence, that COVID-19 was a significant contributing factor for the steep reduction in new claims: only 30 for the entire year. Not since 1988 have we seen a number this low. My predecessors have frequently reported here that searching for predictable patterns in the world of clients' security funds was futile and 2020 confirms that fact.

The Board also filed an amicus brief in the Supreme Judicial Court in Matter of Olchowski. Our staff continued to partner with the Office of Bar Counsel in the ongoing outreach program to the public and the profession about client protection. General Counsel Karen D. O'Toole and her successor Linda G. Bauer spoke to three law school classes at Boston University School of Law and Suffolk University School of Law and at five continuing legal education programs for Massachusetts attorneys. In addition, Linda succeeded Karen as the northeast regional vice president for the National Client Protection Organization and continued to serve on the S.J.C.'s Professionalism Committee.

The Board continued its oversight of Citizens Bank which is the current outside investment manager of the Clients' Security Fund and completed updates of internal policies. We did not enter any material written contracts.

This year's transitions are especially noteworthy. Former Chair W. H. Lee Dunham and former Vice Chair Judith Goldberg completed their terms of distinguished service to the cause of client protection. After more than three decades of service our former General Counsel and Executive Director, Karen D. O'Toole retired. (Please see p. 11.) We then welcomed Karen's successor, Linda G. Bauer, a twenty-five-year veteran with the Office of Bar Counsel most recently serving as acting first assistant bar counsel. Linda brings an intimate understanding of the lawyer disciplinary process to her new responsibilities in the realm of law-client protection.

In closing, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Linda Bauer, Adam Lutynski and Bernice Addonizio for their unwavering dedication to the mission of the Clients' Security Board. I also am deeply grateful for the support of the Supreme Judicial Court, as well as my fellow Board members whose combined knowledge and experience is truly humbling. During these trying times, and despite meeting remotely, the services of the CSB in support of those wronged remains strong. It has truly been a team effort. As I begin my second year as Chair, I look forward to facing the challenges that lie ahead.

Very truly yours,

David R. Chenelle, Esq.
Chair

His administrative law practice includes representing individuals involved with a variety of trades – contractors, plumbers, electricians and engineers - with disputes with professional licensing boards alleging violations of professional conduct standards. As a commercial litigator, he represents clients with construction and employment disputes, employment discrimination claims, breach of lease claims, and franchise disputes. Mr. Kerrigan received a B.A. from Colby College and a J.D. from Boston University School of Law.

Brian D. Bixby, Esq. was appointed to the Board effective February, 2020. He is a partner at Burns & Levinson LLP, where he served for many years as a Chair of the Private Client Group and as Head of the Fiduciary Litigation Department, as well as a member of the Trusts & Estates and Divorce & Family Law Departments. His practice concentrates on probate court litigation, estate planning, fiduciary administration, family law, guardianship and conservatorship law, and representation of individuals and fiduciaries in matters relating to estates and trusts. Mr. Bixby is an active member of the American Bar Association, Massachusetts Bar Association, Boston Bar Association, and the Boston Estate Planning Council. He is also involved in the Boston Probate and Estate Planning Forum, and the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, and is a board member in the New England Chapter of the Family Firm Institute. He is a former President of the Massachusetts Family and Probate Inn of Court, and was a U.S. Delegate to the XII International Congress on Family Law, and also received recognition in 2016 as a "Litigation Trailblazer" by the National Law Journal. Mr. Bixby received his A.B. from Brown University and his J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law.

Sally R. Gaglini, Esq. was appointed to the Board effective February, 2020. She is the founder of the Gaglini Law Group LLC. Her private practice over a 30-year period has concentrated in probate, fiduciary and family law with emphasis on guardianships and conservatorships in addition to entertainment law with a specialized emphasis on young performers and entities that bind them. She remains a court-certified guardian ad litem, accepting appointments from the courts advancing the needs of children, impaired adults requiring assistance, and also accepting appointments as a fiduciary. Her entertainment practice focuses on transactions in media including licensing and other contracts, with a unique subspecialty in child labor and trust relative to the entertainment industry, bringing Hollywood together with probate and family law.

An AV-rated attorney, Ms. Gaglini is a past president and active member of the Massachusetts Family & Probate American Inn of Court, also holding memberships with the Massachusetts Bar Association and American Bar Association. In 2014, she was honored by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly as a "Top Women of Law". She proposed and authored, with lawmakers, the inaugural child performer law in Massachusetts. Since 1990, Ms. Gaglini has taught Entertainment Law at Suffolk University Law School, her alma mater. A graduate of Brandeis University where she earned her BA cum laude, she authored Young Performers at Work: Child Star Survival Guide. The book was awarded the Silver IPPY by Independent Publisher as Best Adult Non-Fiction ⁴Informational E-Book.
